

My Sister Mother: A Memoir of Love, Loss, and Resilience

In My Sister Mother, author Jenny Friedman tells the moving story of her relationship with her younger sister, Laurie. After their mother's death,

Laurie became Jenny's primary caregiver, and the two women developed a close bond that was both complex and rewarding.

Jenny's memoir is a raw and honest account of the challenges and joys of caregiving. She writes about the physical and emotional toll that caring for Laurie took on her, as well as the unexpected ways that the experience enriched her life.
